

Gilles Giacca

Gilles Giacca holds a Masters Degree in International Relations from the Graduate Institute of International Studies in Geneva and a Master of Law (LLM) in International Law from the University of Essex. He has worked in the research and evaluation unit of the UN Office of the High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR), for the International Commission of Jurists and as a journalist in the written and audiovisual press. He is also assistant Editor for the Refugee Survey Quarterly (published by Oxford University Press). The subject of his PhD is related to economic, social and cultural rights in situations of armed conflict.

At the Academy, he is now junior researcher for the following projects: post-conflict peacebuilding and reconstruction; Human rights in armed conflicts; and on the RULAC Project which deals with the implementation of the Rule of Law in armed conflicts situations.
