

WOMEN'S PERSPECTIVE ON A CAREER IN INTERNATIONAL LAW

VILLA MOYNIER | RUE DE LAUSANNE 120B | GENEVA | WEDNESDAY 18 DECEMBER 2019 | 12:30 - 14:00

Inspired by the ATLAS series of online profiles, this event, co-organized with the ATLAS Network, will feature prominent women in international law. Coming from different professional backgrounds, they will candidly share their experience and advice with the audience through an interactive discussion.

MODERATION

---

- Emilie Max, Researcher, Geneva Academy
- Verity Robson, Geneva ATLAS Network and Legal Counsellor, Permanent Mission of the United Kingdom to the International Organisations in Geneva

PANELISTS

---

Panelists will reflect on what propelled them to an international career, the challenges they have faced and tackled, and advice for other young professionals on a similar path.

- Anna Katulu, Human Rights Officer, Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights
- Floriane Murphy-Borel, United Nations Advocacy Coordinator, Human Rights Watch
- Nishat, Legal Adviser to Operations, International Committee of the Red Cross

REGISTRATION

---

You need to register to attend this event via an online form on our website.