

TACKLING CONFLICT-RELATED SEXUAL VIOLENCE IN UKRAINE

27 APRIL 2023 - 06:00-07:30 PM

VILLA MOYNIER, VM007 - CASSESE ROOM

Ukraine has set a world precedent in fighting for justice and reparation for survivors of conflict-related sexual violence (CRSV).

This panel brings together four leading voices who work on ensuring accountability and reparation for CRSV in Ukraine.

They will share their views and reflections on the measures implemented by the government on the topic of conflict-related sexual violence; the role of civil society and survivors; challenges to fulfil the right to justice, and obtain truth and reparation.

Refreshments will be served after the event.

Seats are limited. Please RSVP by Wednesday, 26 April:

<https://www.eventbrite.ch/e/tackling-conflictrelated-sexual-violence-in-ukraine-tickets-621631425327>

MODERATOR

Prof. Clara Sandoval

Professor of Human Rights at the Master in Transitional Justice at the Geneva Academy of International Humanitarian Law and Human Rights and Director of Programmes at the Global Survivors Fund

PANELISTS

Kateryna Levchenko
Ukrainian Government
Commissioner for Gender Policy

Khrystyna Kit
Head of Ukrainian
Women Lawyers
Association (JURFEM)

Iryna Dovgan
Head of the Ukrainian Global Network of Victims and Survivors
to End Wartime Sexual Violence (SEMA)

Esther Dingemans
Executive Director of the Global Survivors
Fund